

Benjamin F. Sidbury L'01

General Counsel & Chief of Staff
Wingate University
Wingate, NC

Ben Sidbury returned to his alma mater in 2020. He serves as the General Counsel of the University, and oversees all legal and compliance issues, including higher education law, Title IX, commercial contracts, dispute and litigation management, intellectual property, labor & employment, corporate and fiduciary issues, and Board governance issues.

Prior to joining Wingate, Sidbury was the Managing Partner of the Charlotte office of Bryan Cave Leighton Paisner LLP, where he practiced intellectual property law. He was previously an associate and then partner at Alston & Bird LLP. He is admitted to practice in North Carolina and the District of Columbia; U.S. District Court for the Western, Middle, and Eastern District of North Carolina, District of Colorado, and Eastern District of Texas; U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth, Eleventh, and Federal Circuit; U.S. Supreme Court; registered to practice before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. He was the Senior Notes Editor of the Syracuse Law Review.

Sidbury graduated with honors from Wingate University with a Bachelor of Arts degree and received his Juris Doctorate, magna cum laude, from Syracuse University College of Law.

Sidbury lives in Charlotte with his wife Dede and son, Coleman.

PUBLICATIONS

Gonzaga Univ. v. Doe and its Implications: No Right to Enforce Student Privacy Rights Under FERPA, 29 JOURNAL OF COLLEGE AND UNIVERSITY LAW 655 (2003).

You've Got Mail...and Your Boss Knows It: Rethinking the Scope of the Employer E-Mail Monitoring Exception to the Electronic Communications Privacy Act, 1 U.C.L.A. JOURNAL OF LAW & TECHNOLOGY 5 (2001), reprinted in 5 JOURNAL OF INTERNET LAW 16 (July 2001) and INTERNET LAW & BUSINESS REPORTER 937 (Sept. 2001).

Comparative Advertising on the Internet: Defining the Boundaries of Trademark Fair Use for Internet Metatags and Trigger Ads, 3 U.N.C. JOURNAL OF LAW & TECHNOLOGY 35 (2001).

The Disclosure of Campus Crime: How Colleges and Universities Continue to Hide Behind the 1998 Amendment to FERPA and How Congress Can Eliminate the Loophole, 26 JOURNAL OF COLLEGE AND UNIVERSITY LAW 755 (2000).